

STATES

PROVO.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Graham, assisted by their daughter, Sadie, entertained the Postoffice employees and their wives, the near relatives of the family, together with the bishopric of the Sixth ward, at their home, 22 South Second West, Monday evening in honor of Leyland Graham and Miss Lyle Phinlayson, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, the Wednesday following in the temple in Salt Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Leyland Graham left on Thursday for Portland.

An informal reception was given Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 by E. D. Partridge and Miss Alice Reynolds at the home of the former, 140 North Academy avenue, in honor of Mrs. George H. Noyes of Berkeley, Cal. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses for the occasion. About sixty guests were entertained.

Fred L. Davis of this city and Miss Pearl Wightman of Payson were married on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents and a grand reception given in their honor.

Mrs. Lizzie Sutton entertained on Saturday at her beautiful new home, 42 East Center street, in honor of Mrs. Emily Iyle and Mrs. Anna Walsh, who are visiting here from Scipio.

The Bonnie Brice club met on Monday with Miss Vera Storrs. A very interesting paper on Robert Burns, given by Miss Hazel Howe, followed by an instrumental selection taken from the comic opera "Heidelberg." The club adjourned for two weeks, to meet with Miss Fern Sutton.

The home of Mrs. John Strong, 132 South Second East, presented a brilliant appearance Wednesday evening, the occasion being the marriage and reception in honor of her son, Mr. Dean Strong, and Miss Roxie St. Paul.

The ceremony which made the young couple one was announced by Bishop T. N. Taylor at 6 o'clock, in the presence of about 100 guests. The bride wore a beautiful gown of cream silk, the groom in the usual suit of black. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses, while the grounds were well lighted with numerous Japanese lanterns.

Here the bride and groom were laid and the merry crowd danced to the sweet music of a string orchestra. A sumptuous wedding supper was served. The presents were both elaborate and useful.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Howe have gone to visit friends in Marysville, Ida., for a couple of months. They will return through Yellowstone park before returning home.

Mrs. Hannah M. Smith, wife of the late President George A. Smith, was the recipient of a most delightful surprise party at the home of her daughter, Josephine Heever. The event was in honor of the venerable woman's seventy-seventh birthday, and was planned and successfully carried out by a number of her third ward friends. Refreshments were served on the lawn and a most enjoyable afternoon enjoyed by all.

Postmaster Ross of Lehi, will leave Sunday for Logan, where he will be the guest of Postmaster O'Dell. While there they will complete the arrangements for the state postmaster's convention to be held in that city on the 19th and 20th of July.

The many friends of Miss Emma Ramsey will be pleased to learn of her marriage to George D. Morris, which took place Thursday at 1:30 in the Salt Lake temple. A grand and happy ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey, who was for a number of years a resident of this city. She has a large circle of friends, whose only regret in this happy union will be that their home is to be left behind.

The fifth annual reunion of the Park family was held in this city Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Weaver. The gathering was composed of the descendants of John D. Park, who came to Provo in 1849. The sons and daughters were Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Allen, John W. Hoover and Messrs. John, Joseph and Daniel Park. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in music, songs, and speeches. An elaborate dinner was served.

Miss Effie Graham, assisted by a number of her girl friends, entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Graham, Thursday evening at a lawn party.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown went up to Salt Lake to attend the wedding of their sister, Miss Emma Ramsey, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Teetzel left Thursday for their home in Chicago. They will return about September.

Miss Chloe Smoot, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Reed Smoot, is visiting relatives and friends in Salt Lake City.

Miss Alice Reynolds and Miss Violine Elliott left Thursday for Canada, where they expect to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Beebe and Miss Nina Houston were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. O. Beeley at their beautiful fruit farm.

Miss Vivian Hinkley left the first of the week for the central states mission.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Finlayson and daughters, Vivia and Hazel, of Payson, were the guests of Professor and Mrs. Hickman on Monday.

The Frisella Art club was entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Estelle Bennett at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bennett, 65 North First West. While the club members were busy with the art work, music and social chat, while away a couple of pleasant hours, after which a light refreshment was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Longbottom entertained at their home, 22 North Sixth street, at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham and Mr. and Mrs. W. Craven.

The Women of Woodcraft gave a social and strawberry festival on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Weaver on Provo bench, which was a most enjoyable affair. About fifty participated.

The many friends of Miss Louise Hayward of Springville, but who for a long time was employed as a teacher in this city, will be pleased to learn of her marriage with W. V. Stoddard of Perry, Ore., which was solemnized at the Salt Lake temple on Wednesday at noon.

The ceremony, an elaborate wedding breakfast followed by the honor of Mrs. Vivian McCune. Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard will make their future home in Perry, Ore.

One of the most enjoyable and festive events of the week was the celebrating of the ninth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Jones, which was held near the Upper Falls, in Provo, where the bride and only relatives were invited. Carriages were provided and a delightful drive through the mountain scenery followed. The appointed place an excellent prepared trout dinner awaited them. In the cool of the evening the dance was made back to town.

Mrs. James Clave entertained at a dinner Sunday at her home, 21 West and First South streets, with Mrs. Emily Iyle and Mrs. Anna Walsh, both of Salt Lake.

Miss Maud Graham is spending a few days in Salt Lake City, the guest of Miss Minnie Margretts.

Miss Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Anderson of Salt Lake City, spent a couple of days this week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butt.

Mrs. W. S. Cannon entertained about a dozen of her friends at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. George Hoeking was an incoming passenger Wednesday.

Mrs. Stanley was a Zion visitor.

Mrs. A. E. Raleigh was a visitor to the capital of the first of the week.

Miss Bess Chandler, who has been visiting in Salt Lake the past few days, returned Tuesday.

Henry Finkell, who has been visiting in Ohio the past month, has returned.

Mrs. W. M. Ward left Wednesday for Riverton, where she will visit relatives for a week.

Miss May Bourgard was in Salt Lake during the week, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Rigby.

Mrs. Thomas Johns of Glenn's Ferry, Ida., who has been visiting in camp, returned to her home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Finkell were incoming passengers from Salt Lake Monday.

Mrs. John Hoster, who has been visiting in Ogden and returning Monday.

Mrs. Beatty, from Salt Lake, accompanied Mrs. Hoster, to remain the week.

Miss Julia Stephens returned to her home in Salt Lake, after a three weeks' visit in camp.

Mrs. R. S. Wilbur left Tuesday for Gouldfield, Nev., where she will join her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Taylor were returning pilgrims from Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mrs. Jay McCabe was an incoming passenger from Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. De Ford of Caliente, Nev., arrived in camp Monday to visit her sisters, Mrs. J. B. Ostler and Miss Victoria Hornbuckle.

Mrs. Myrl Smith was a city visitor during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ostler were city visitors Monday.

Mrs. O. E. McInfield was a visitor to the city the first of the week.

PARK CITY.

Walter Dickert spent Monday in Park visiting his brother.

Misses Minnie Kessel and Amy Star entertained the members of the O. N. O. club Wednesday afternoon at the "Palm Park" hotel. A lunch was served.

Mrs. John C. Fleury and son, Edgar, returned home to this city Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Snyder returned to their home in the city this week.

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Josephine Muntz and Clarence Nevin, which was solemnized at St. Mary's Catholic church, Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Father Galligan. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Leahy and Miss Josephine Muntz. The groom by Mr. Ambrose Murphy. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, where a wedding dinner was served, and only the immediate relatives were present.

The young couple left on the afternoon train for Salt Lake, where they will visit for a few days, after which they will return to the Park to make their home.

Miss Muntz and family returned home from Salt Lake Monday after a brief visit with relatives and friends.

Harmon Wright left Wednesday for Provo.

What promises to be one of the events of the season is the grand appearance of the "Maple hall" in the R. Younger. An enlarged orchestra of brass and string instruments, and a good time is assured.

Miss Mary Walsh was among the outgoing passengers to the city Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Scott came up from the city Monday evening to be present at the institution of Malta commandery No. 3, Knights Templar.

The Misses Florence and May Robinson are visiting in the city.

Miss Florence Kelly went down to Salt Lake Thursday afternoon on a ten days' visit.

Miss Anna Mailla returned home from an extended visit in the northwest Tuesday.

C. Brown was among the outgoing passengers Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Anna Kerwin and son Lester were passengers of the city Thursday afternoon.

Another pretty wedding to be remembered in Park this week was the marriage on Wednesday of Miss Lysie Phinlayson of this city, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Phinlayson, to Leyland Graham of Provo. The marriage took place in the Salt Lake temple, but upon the return of the happy couple to their home in Provo, a reception was given that evening at the home of the bride's parents.

The Clayton of Salt Lake City and Thomas St. George of San Francisco, relatives of Mrs. A. Guthrie, were sojourning the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie.

Mr. C. Hall and children are spending a visit, which will be concluded July 2, with friends at Nephi.

John Perre of California, who is on a pleasure trip through the intermountain region, spent a visit with his nephew, William Perre, and Mr. Perre and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlos and children of Salt Lake are visiting the brothers of Mrs. Carlos—Jed and W. Green—here, of Salt Lake.

J. A. Lovelless has been appointed a deputy clerk to receive applications for marriage licenses in this city.

The Black Hawk Indian War Veterans' committee, Henry E. Searle, J. O. Searle and John H. Moore, has nearly completed arrangements for the annual reunion and camp fire camp, which will be held in Payson four days, commencing Aug. 15. All the veterans and their friends are invited to join in the reunion. There will be every battle, entertainments, both day and night. It will be the twelfth annual reunion, the one previous having been held at Provo last year.

The society event of the week was the marriage of Leroy J. Groves and Louella Boley. They were married in the home of Mrs. J. O. Searle, at Provo, on Wednesday. Upon their return home they were given a very pretty informal reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Boley, only near friends and relatives being present. Last evening the bride and groom gave a party at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boley, where about 100 friends and relatives were present.

The marriage of Joseph S. Durrant of this place and Miss Lorna Holding of Spanish Fork occurred this week in the Salt Lake temple. They will make their home here.

Mr. Taylor of Provo was in American Fork yesterday.

Misses Pearl and Dora Priddy of Logan are visiting their brother, Thomas S. Priddy.

Mrs. Charles W. Earl and little daughter will leave here Sunday morning for Portland, Ore.

Dr. Joseph M. Tanner was an American Fork visitor yesterday.

Professor Osmond Justensen, principal of the American Fork district schools, and Professor O. N. Allison, the local agent for the week for Berkeley, Cal., to attend the summer school.

George McCandless came home from Toftitt during the week on account of the death of his son.

Miss Ella Storrs of this place has gone to Eureka.

Homers Stringham and sister Della, of Manti, are visiting their sister, Mrs. C. A. Storrs.

Miss Tessie Lambert of Salt Lake is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. J. Lambert.

Mrs. Helen Broadbent left here last evening for Garland, Utah, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Heber Cutler.

The old folks' reunion held at Nelson's park, about three miles west of this city, on Tuesday, was the important social event of the week. Over 1,000 people were there, every town in the county being represented. A very interesting program was rendered, and a luncheon served, after which the day was devoted to social chat and dancing.

All people past the age of 16 years were given a free admission. The dancing pavilion at the park was formally opened, a large crowd being present. The dance was a great success.

Miss Winnie Jones, Roy and Ella Nielsen came to their homes in Manti this week to spend the summer vacation.

Miss Elva Laughlin spent portion of the week in Gunnison and Manti, returning Friday.

Mrs. John H. Seely is spending the week in Salt Lake City.

Charles Halberg and wife returned Saturday from Salt Lake, where they spent most of the week.

Mrs. John Knudsen of Manti was up during the first part of the week.

John Stanfield returned Thursday from Idaho, where he went a couple of weeks ago.

Laurence Larsen returned early in the week from Idaho. He has been in that state over a year.

A. W. Cherry spent part of the week in Salt Lake City.

John F. Fecher and wife returned Wednesday from a trip to Murray and Heber city. At the former place they attended the wedding of a granddaughter.

Miss Ella, daughter of Bishop James Larsen of the Manti Pleasant south ward, left this week for Alberta, Canada, where she will spend the summer the guest of her sister, Mrs. Berlie Jacobs.

Will C. Closs, who has been a resident of this city for about fifteen years, left this week going to Salt Lake, where he will live hereafter.

Web Greene spent part of the week in Salt Lake.

H. P. Olson and family returned this week from Salt Lake, where they will reside hereafter.

Or, and Mrs. C. N. Ray are spending the week in Salt Lake. The doctor's mother and sister, who came in from the east recently, accompanied them on the trip.

Fred C. Jensen left yesterday on a trip to Mexico, expecting to be absent about one month.

Andrew C. Miner of Blackfoot, Ida., is visiting friends in this valley.

Miss Lulu Nielsen of Fairview is spending the summer in Salt Lake, where she will spend the summer the guest of her sister, Mrs. John J. Jensen.

It is never crowded at Saltair. Thirty trains July 4.

he has been receiving medical treatment. Miss Ann Gleave of Ephraim is visiting with relatives in Annabell. Charles Heesch spent a portion of the past week in Ephraim.

Thomas Gardner and family are visiting with relatives in Annabell. Mr. Gardner left here several years ago for Arizona, and this is his first visit home since.

Osmond and Katie Olson of Ephraim have returned home after a visit with relatives in Glenwood.

EUREKA.

Mrs. Herman Snell was a Park City visitor Sunday.

Walter Thompson has returned from his visit to Eureka.

Mrs. Jacob Muntz is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Long of Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson McChrystal went to the capital Wednesday.

Joseph Thorpe, who has been absent in California for the past five months, has returned to Eureka.

Mrs. Otto M. Swartz has returned from an extended trip through southern California. She will visit with her husband for a few days before returning to Salt Lake City.

Rev. Parker of the M. E. church will attend the Monday for Denver, where he will attend the international convention of the Epworth League. He expects to be gone about ten days.

A spirited contest for the Goddess of Liberty was finished here Friday. Although the amount of money taken in was less than last year, the money was the enthusiasm ran higher. The candidates—Miss Ella Neill, Miss Pearl Taylor and Miss Beatrice Miller—finished in the order named, with 2,500, 1,852 and 1,400 votes respectively.

A large number of people gathered at the county court house to hear the result of the vote, which was received with loud cheers by the supporters of Miss O'Neill. The committee then waited upon Miss O'Neill and informed her of her victory.

MAMMOTH AND ROBINSON. Mrs. B. R. Smoot is spending the summer at Provo.

Mrs. H. S. Harriman is entertaining Miss Mary Walsh at the city.

Will Roberts has his father, J. B. Roberts, as his guest this week.

Mr. D. Scott is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sept Nesbit.

PAYSON.

The wedding of Miss Pearl Wightman to Mr. R. G. Davies took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wightman, on Thursday. Their elegant home was the scene of the most social achievement of the past few years in this city.

Miss Wightman and her friends assembled in response to dainty cards to attend in honor to the respected parents and happy couple. An elegant wedding supper was served.

Another pretty wedding to be remembered in Payson this week was the marriage on Wednesday of Miss Lysie Phinlayson of this city, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Phinlayson, to Leyland Graham of Provo. The marriage took place in the Salt Lake temple, but upon the return of the happy couple to their home in Provo, a reception was given that evening at the home of the bride's parents.

The Clayton of Salt Lake City and Thomas St. George of San Francisco, relatives of Mrs. A. Guthrie, were sojourning the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie.

Mr. C. Hall and children are spending a visit, which will be concluded July 2, with friends at Nephi.

John Perre of California, who is on a pleasure trip through the intermountain region, spent a visit with his nephew, William Perre, and Mr. Perre and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlos and children of Salt Lake are visiting the brothers of Mrs. Carlos—Jed and W. Green—here, of Salt Lake.

J. A. Lovelless has been appointed a deputy clerk to receive applications for marriage licenses in this city.

The Black Hawk Indian War Veterans' committee, Henry E. Searle, J. O. Searle and John H. Moore, has nearly completed arrangements for the annual reunion and camp fire camp, which will be held in Payson four days, commencing Aug. 15. All the veterans and their friends are invited to join in the reunion. There will be every battle, entertainments, both day and night. It will be the twelfth annual reunion, the one previous having been held at Provo last year.

The society event of the week was the marriage of Leroy J. Groves and Louella Boley. They were married in the home of Mrs. J. O. Searle, at Provo, on Wednesday. Upon their return home they were given a very pretty informal reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Boley, only near friends and relatives being present.

The marriage of Joseph S. Durrant of this place and Miss Lorna Holding of Spanish Fork occurred this week in the Salt Lake temple. They will make their home here.

Mr. Taylor of Provo was in American Fork yesterday.

Misses Pearl and Dora Priddy of Logan are visiting their brother, Thomas S. Priddy.

Mrs. Charles W. Earl and little daughter will leave here Sunday morning for Portland, Ore.

Dr. Joseph M. Tanner was an American Fork visitor yesterday.

Professor Osmond Justensen, principal of the American Fork district schools, and Professor O. N. Allison, the local agent for the week for Berkeley, Cal., to attend the summer school.

George McCandless came home from Toftitt during the week on account of the death of his son.

Miss Ella Storrs of this place has gone to Eureka.

Homers Stringham and sister Della, of Manti, are visiting their sister, Mrs. C. A. Storrs.

Miss Tessie Lambert of Salt Lake is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. J. Lambert.

Mrs. Helen Broadbent left here last evening for Garland, Utah, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Heber Cutler.

The old folks' reunion held at Nelson's park, about three miles west of this city, on Tuesday, was the important social event of the week. Over 1,000 people were there, every town in the county being represented. A very interesting program was rendered, and a luncheon served, after which the day was devoted to social chat and dancing.

All people past the age of 16 years were given a free admission. The dancing pavilion at the park was formally opened, a large crowd being present. The dance was a great success.

Miss Winnie Jones, Roy and Ella Nielsen came to their homes in Manti this week to spend the summer vacation.

Miss Elva Laughlin spent portion of the week in Gunnison and Manti, returning Friday.

Mrs. John H. Seely is spending the week in Salt Lake City.

Charles Halberg and wife returned Saturday from Salt Lake, where they spent most of the week.

Mrs. John Knudsen of Manti was up during the first part of the week.

John Stanfield returned Thursday from Idaho, where he went a couple of weeks ago.

Laurence Larsen returned early in the week from Idaho. He has been in that state over a year.

A. W. Cherry spent part of the week in Salt Lake City.

John F. Fecher and wife returned Wednesday from a trip to Murray and Heber city. At the former place they attended the wedding of a granddaughter.

Miss Ella, daughter of Bishop James Larsen of the Manti Pleasant south ward, left this week for Alberta, Canada, where she will spend the summer the guest of her sister, Mrs. Berlie Jacobs.

Will C. Closs, who has been a resident of this city for about fifteen years, left this week going to Salt Lake, where he will live hereafter.

Web Greene spent part of the week in Salt Lake.

H. P. Olson and family returned this week from Salt Lake, where they will reside hereafter.

Or, and Mrs. C. N. Ray are spending the week in Salt Lake. The doctor's mother and sister, who came in from the east recently, accompanied them on the trip.

Fred C. Jensen left yesterday on a trip to Mexico, expecting to be absent about one month.

Andrew C. Miner of Blackfoot, Ida., is visiting friends in this valley.

Miss Lulu Nielsen of Fairview is spending the summer in Salt Lake, where she will spend the summer the guest of her sister, Mrs. John J. Jensen.

It is never crowded at Saltair. Thirty trains July 4.

Dinwoodey Furniture Co.

A Carload of Summer Comfort—Settees—Easy Chairs—Swinging Chairs—Hammocks—Camp Goods, Etc., Etc.

THE time for outdoor comfort is here. If you're going to the mountains let us show you our camp helps. If you can't get away, here are many suggestions of Lawn and Porch Comforts that cost little and coax back spent vitality.

STEEL SWING CHAIRS, built similar to this cut, very strong and good for years—$7.

New Stickley Mission goods for porch, den or library—weathered oak with seat and back of wide leather straps. Settees and quaint chairs with the Stickley style to them. $12.50 to $19.

Good Old Vermont Hickory Chairs For The Porch. Rustic finish, shaped for comfort—made of wood with the bark on—seats and backs of woven bark—suggestive of a mountain retreat. Parts bolted together—and the most substantial weather-proof, outdoor furniture we know of. Rockers and arm chairs for children and adults—$4, $5, $6, $7.

TAKE A HAMMOCK WITH YOU! 40 styles here to pick from. Pretty color combinations—best grade of cord and stretchers—wide fringes—splendid values. $2 up.

Carload of Globe-Wernick Book Cases and Filing Cabinets

Free Fireworks. We shall give with all purchases to the amount of TWO DOLLARS, a 50c Bag of Assorted Fireworks, ABSOLUTELY FREE. IF YOU PREFER STAMPS WE OFFER

$15.00 In Gold Trading Stamps with every $2.00 purchase. This is absolutely the Last Time we shall make this exceptional offer. MONDAY ONLY.

HERALD WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

HERALD WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

HERALD